Journey of Students

R. Saranya

Class 10, Tamil Nadu

Despite losing her father at a young age and growing up in a family supported by her mother's daily wage earnings, R. Saranya never gave up on her dreams.

At the Swami Dayananda AIM for Seva Tribal Girls Chatralayam, Anaikatti, she found a safe, nurturing environment where she received not only academic support but also the values of discipline, devotion, yoga, and self-confidence.

With this strong foundation, Saranya scored an outstanding 94.6% (473/500) in the Class 10 Board Examinations, securing first rank in her school. Today, she is pursuing Class XI with the confidence to dream bigger and build a brighter future.

Saranya credits AIM for Seva for giving her the opportunity, guidance, and encouragement to excel. Her journey is a powerful reminder that when children receive the right support, they can rise above adversity and achieve their full potential.

H. Omkar

Class 3, Uttar Pradesh

H. Omkar, a Class 3 student from Murgidand village in Sonbhadra District, Uttar Pradesh, comes from a low-income farming family where access to quality education was limited. Before joining the Swami Dayananda AIM for Seva Chatralayam for Boys, Basantpur, in 2025, he struggled academically and lacked the confidence to communicate and participate in class.

Since becoming part of the Chatralayam, Omkar has made remarkable progress. A structured daily routine, nutritious meals, dedicated academic support, and a caring environment have helped him improve his learning, strengthen his Hindi language skills, and actively engage in school activities.

Today, Omkar dreams of becoming a teacher and inspiring others through education. His journey demonstrates how timely intervention and holistic support can transform a child's confidence, nurture aspirations, and lay the foundation for a brighter future.

Alumni Stories

From Loss to Leadership

After losing his father—the family's sole breadwinner—in a tragic accident, Uttam Singh Rathore found a second home at the Arsha Vidya Tirtha AIM for Seva Chatralayam for Boys, Jaipur. The education, care, and values he received there helped him rebuild his life with confidence and purpose.

Today, Uttam is the proprietor of Sani Kripa Enterprises and Shree Balaji Enterprises, government-approved firms with a combined annual turnover of ₹30 lakh, supplying institutional products to organisations across India.

Rooted in the values of seva, Uttam continues to give back through community service and hopes to support future AIM for Seva students.

His journey shows how the right support at the right time can transform loss into opportunity and create lasting impact.
