Journey of Students

Kishan Munia

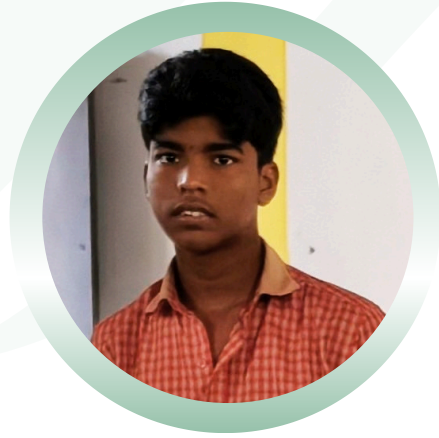

Class 10, Haryana

Kishan Munia, from Chhota Junwaniya village in Jhabua, Madhya Pradesh, struggled to find a stable environment for education. When he joined the Shri Chunilal Vij AIM for Seva Chatralayam for Boys, Bhalout, Rohtak, Haryana, in 2022, he found the transition difficult. Homesickness, discomfort and a loss of interest in studies even made him consider leaving.

With patient guidance from mentors, a structured routine and a caring environment, Kishan gradually regained his focus and confidence. Encouraged by his teachers, he chose to stay—and successfully completed Class 10.

Today, Kishan is determined to continue his education till Class 12 and dreams of joining the Merchant Navy. His journey shows how the right environment, mentorship and support can help a child overcome uncertainty, stay committed to education and move towards a purposeful future.

D. Narendra

Class 10, Andhra Pradesh

Born into a humble family, D. Narendra grew up watching his parents work as daily wage labourers. Financial hardships made access to quality education difficult, but his family remained determined to build a better future for him.

Joining the Swami Dayananda AIM for Seva Chatralayam for Boys, Latchayyapeta, Andhra Pradesh, became a turning point in his journey. The Chatralayam provided free accommodation, nutritious meals and quality education, while also nurturing him through discipline, traditional values and personal guidance.

With dedication and perseverance, Narendra achieved an outstanding 88.6% in his Grade 10.

Today, he dreams of becoming a Doctor or Chemical Engineer. His journey reflects how education, values and the right support can help a child overcome financial hardships and aspire to a brighter future.

Alumni Stories

From Hardship to Hope: Gowravva's Story

Gowravva Virupakshappa Belahar from Hubli lost both her parents at a young age and grew up in a financially struggling family with eight younger siblings.

In 2005, she joined the Swami Dayananda AIM for Seva Chatralayam for Girls, Yelahanka, Karnataka, which became a turning point in her life. Along with education, she learned yoga, mantra chanting, crafts, sports, discipline and independence, gaining the confidence to dream bigger.

With support from the donors, she completed her B.Com at Nagarjuna College of Management Studies, Chikkaballapur.

Today, Gowravva has secured a position at Bizprout Corporate Solutions Pvt. Ltd, Bengaluru, while pursuing her MBA. For her, AIM for Seva is more than an NGO—it is the foundation that shaped her life and empowered her future.
