Journey of Students

Neeraj Kumar Gurjar

Class 11, Uttar Pradesh

Neeraj Kumar Gurjar, a student of Swami Dayananda AIM for Seva Chatralayam for Boys in Dighawat, Bhadohi, has made his hostel proud by scoring 85.6% (514/600) in the Class 10 board examinations in 2026, securing 5th position in his school.

Having joined the Chatralayam as a young student, Neeraj's hard work and determination have helped him overcome challenges and excel academically.

The eldest of four siblings, Neeraj comes from a farming family in Sonbhadra district. Alongside his studies, he actively participates in cultural activities and enjoys cricket and chess, even representing his school in competitions.

Now in Class 11, Neeraj is determined to pursue higher education and become financially independent. His journey reflects his dedication, resilience and the opportunities provided by AIM for Seva.

Nalla Charan Teja

Class 10, Andhra Pradesh

Coming from a humble family where his parents worked in agriculture and as daily-wage labourers, Nalla Charan Teja faced financial challenges in pursuing his education.

His journey changed when he joined the Swami Dayananda AIM for Seva Chatralayam for Boys in Latchayyapeta Village, Andhra Pradesh. AIM for Seva provided him with a nurturing environment, quality education, discipline, values and the confidence to dream big.

Charan's hard work paid off when he scored an impressive 93.3% in his Grade 10 Board Examinations, securing 8th position in his school. He credits the encouragement and guidance at AIM for Seva for helping him stay focused and determined.

Today, Charan dreams of becoming a scientist, aeronautical engineer or pilot. His journey is a powerful reminder of how education, opportunity, and the right support can help young minds.

Alumni Stories

Tollywood Calling for an AFS Alumnus

T. Nagarjuna is making his mark in Tollywood as a budding actor, assistant director and aspiring cinematographer. After appearing in Telugu film - Maa Inti Bangaaram, he is looking forward to upcoming projects, including Samavarthi, another Telugu movie starring Satyadev Kancharana.

Nagarjuna spent three formative years (2010–2013) at the Tiruvikrama Bala AIM for Seva Chatralayam for Boys in Gudivada, Andhra Pradesh, where he completed his mechanical diploma. Coming from a financially challenged family, the Chatralayam gave him not only an opportunity to pursue his education but also a new direction in life.

Nagarjuna credits Swami Sthairyananda Saraswati and his Chatralayam experience for shaping his outlook and strengthening his journey. From an uncertain young student to an aspiring Tollywood actor, his story is one of opportunity, transformation and perseverance. We wish him every success in the exciting journey ahead!

Adv. Pranita Kotkar

Criminal Advocate, Public
Speaker and Social Media
Influencer

From a Ray of Hope to a Voice for Justice

Born into a family of daily-wage labourers in Sawantwadi, Maharashtra, Advocate Pranita Kotkar found a new direction when she joined the Kumari Deepa Devi Singh AIM for Seva Chatralayam for Girls, Sawantwadi, Maharashtra in 2009. The Gurukul-like environment gave her the safety, discipline, and encouragement to excel in academics and extracurricular activities.

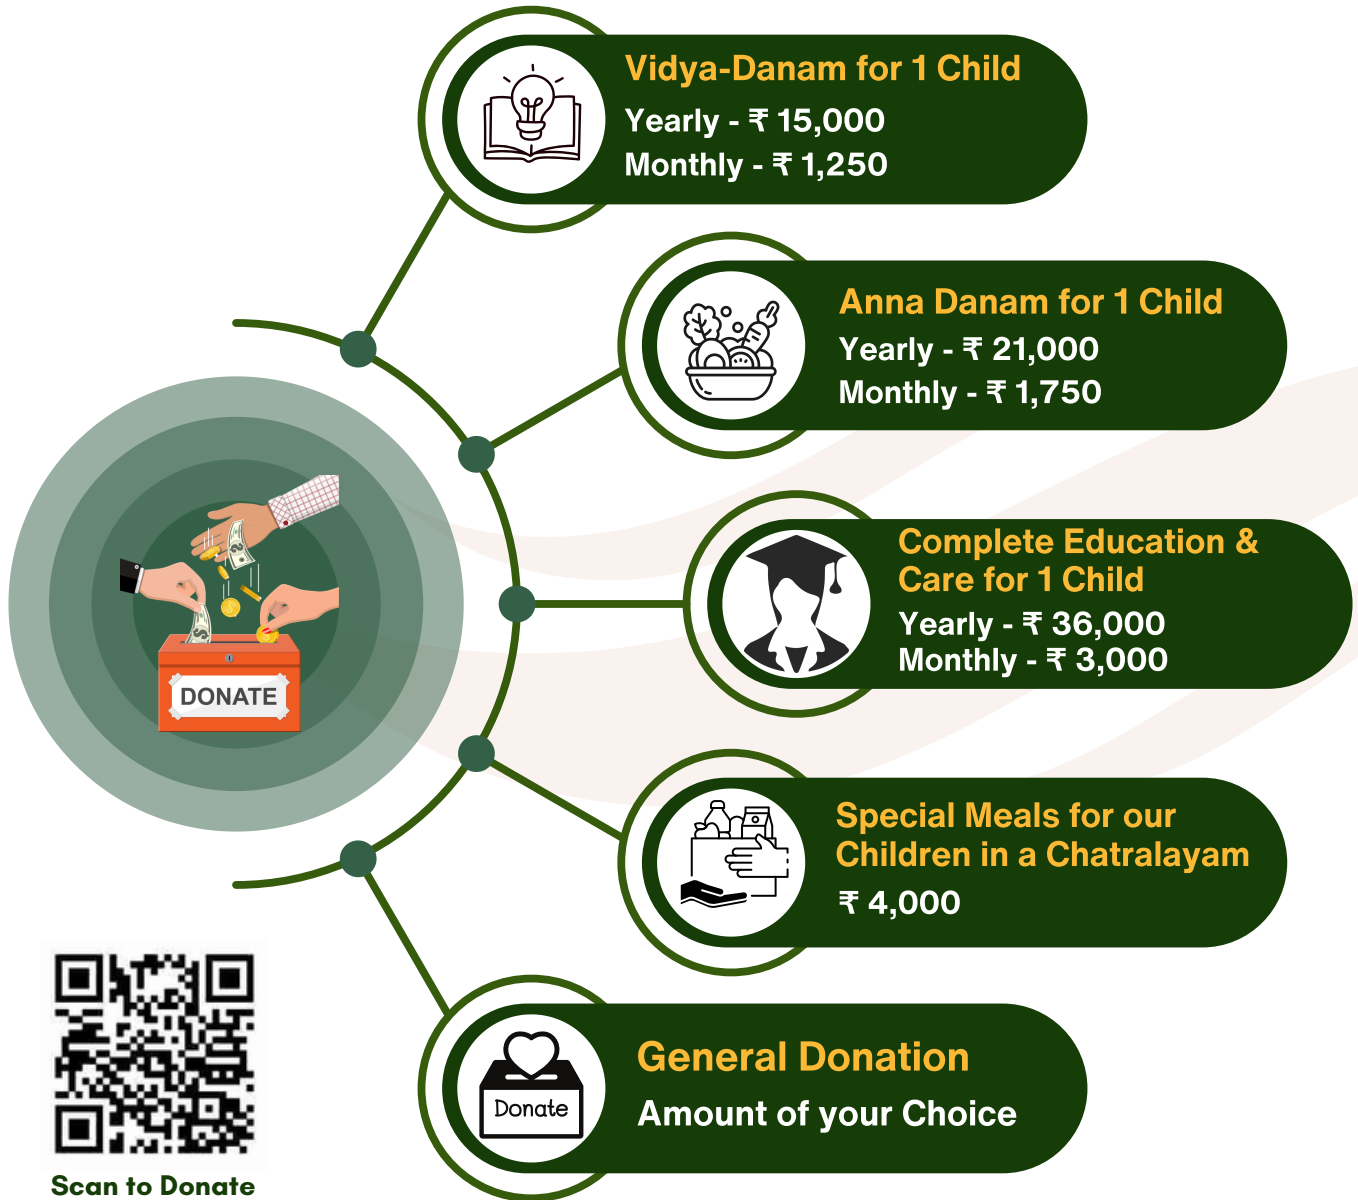

Pranita went on to earn degrees in Political Science and Law, including an LLM in criminology. Today, she is a practicing criminal advocate, public speaker and social media influencer, popularly known as the 'Kokan Anchor.'

Pranita credits her mother and her AIM for Seva years for shaping her journey. "For me, the hostel came as a ray of hope in the pitch darkness of my early life," she says. Her story is a testament to how education, opportunity and values can transform a life.
